JUNE 1, 2023

THURSDAY
6:30 PM – 8:30 PM
GENERAL GOMEZ ARTS AND EVENT CENTER
808 LINCOLN WAY
AUBURN CA 95603

The June meeting of AADC was called to order at 7PM by President Terry Rodriguez.

Members of AADC and guests introduced themselves. It was a good-sized crowd of approximately 40 people to enjoy the potluck and speaker of the evening Rachel Randall-Harris, Vice Mayor of the Auburn City Council. Thanks goes out to all those who contributed to the Potluck.

President's message

- 1) CADEM Los Angeles Reorganization Convention was attended by Terry Rodriguez and Charles Riley of AADC. They were able to hear two speeches by Nancy Pelosi and one each from Barbara Lee and Katie Porter.
- 2) It was announced that Neva Parker, Assembly District 5 candidate will be the July 6, 2023 guest speaker. (Jessica Morse was to be the speaker, but was called away to Washington D.C. and will be unavailable on this date. She will be rescheduled).
- 3) AADC recertification-President Terry Rodriguez announced that AADC has been recertified

IV. Guest Speaker: Rachel Randall-Harris, Auburn Vice Mayor

1. Rachel spoke of moving to Weimar at the age of 4 and growing up attending Weimar Hills and Colfax High School. After graduating college, she worked for Barbara Feinstein for a year in Washington D.C. and now works for Roseville Electric.
2. Rachel spoke of future and ongoing plans of the Auburn City Council. The council is working on modernizing the city and the way it does business

V. The Potluck was enjoyed before the speaker. There was lots of good food and good visiting with approximately 40 fellow meeting attendees.

VI. Meeting adjourned approximately 8:30

Paulette Walter, AADC Secretary
