VII. Old Business - None at this time

VIII. New Business

SFUU will have an Open House on Sat. May 16 from 12:30 to 2:00 in the afternoon.

IX. Speakers

President Engen introduced Judge Leon Dixon. Judge Dixon is endorsed by every judge in Placer County, plus 55 other judges in California. He is running for reelection to the bench against David Bass, Republican.

Judge Dixon spoke about his background with the Legal Services of Northern California, assisting in resolving multiple problems with health, housing and education of his clients. He applied to be a Court Commissioner, but instead was appointed as a Judge to the Superior Court for a two-year term. He is now running for re-election. He would appreciate support in door knocking and phone banking.

Vice President Don Ferguson spoke on how to deal with long term stress. He led an exercise to reduce stress. Explained that your entire body is working to protect you: your breath, your voice, your brain, even weight gain is due to stress. Self-care is important for reducing long term stress. His book, Reptiles in Love, is available at the back table for a donation to AADC.

Neva Parker announced that she is running for California Assembly, District 5, and has been endorsed by both California State Democrats and AADC. She is conducting canvassing and post carding (she will provide postcards and add addresses and postage later). Canvassing has to include both NPP and Republicans, who have been found to be receptive. Donations are appreciated. More information is available on her website, <https://www.nevaparkerforassembly.com//>
