By law changes have been approved by the EBoard. Will distribute information and vote at next General Meeting for member approval.

ICE here in Auburn and Roseville – President reported that Tomas Evangelista thought ICE coming to Auburn. Call hotline for NorCal Resist

Discussion about Scholarship Fundraiser – Susan Roughgarden and Don Ferguson reported that we do not have the bandwidth or proper budget to conduct a November 19th fundraiser at General Gomez. It has been cancelled with David Burns of the Gomez Center. Instead it was proposed that the December potluck include an arts and crafts silent auction scholarship fundraiser. This was approved.

Officer update – Vice President Don Ferguson Proposed letter from Peter Rogosin presented.

Officer update – Secretary Joan Jernegan

Reported that she has been scheduling Campaign Sign staffing in the AADC office for Monday, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 10am to 1:00 pm until the last week of October. No signs have been requested since Oct 10, Big Day of Action. Volunteers are not complaining. Not sure if the public still wants signs.

EBoard consensus to stop regular staffing of office on October 23, Friday. That is Neva Parker's last day to submit postcards. Ask campaigns to pick up cash they are owed. Take signs they do not want given away. Emily to post LAST CALL for that date, with email of info@auburnareademocrats.com.
